

Terms and conditions of sale. (As from 1st July 2009)

1. This order constitutes a legally binding agreement which can only be cancelled by written notice, within 7 days, from order date.
2. The onus is with the Advertiser to ensure cancellation notification is received by Alius Publications Ltd.
3. The person signing this document, in doing so, confirms that they are fully authorised to place this order on behalf of the customer¹ (¹ a trading entity of another company, legal owner, proprietor or holding company).
4. Customers paying by credit or debit card will receive a vat invoice and a credit card receipt in the post within 14 days from the transaction date.
5. No signature is required for customers paying by credit or debit card at point of sale. In doing so customers will be deemed to have agreed to these terms and conditions under implied acceptance.
6. Payment of cheque orders is due within 30 days from the order date. An invoice will follow within 14 days.
7. A penalty of 10% of the total invoice will be charged for payment default of more than 10 days from the terms above.
8. No exclusive advertising arrangement can be made for any business classification, or business type
9. Advertisers are responsible for supplying their artwork in good time, artwork submitted after the deadline will be included at the discretion of the publisher. All artwork sent in as complete will considered to be pre approved, should any dispute occur.
10. Payment is not conditional on submission/approval of artwork not publication of the printed guide.
11. The information detailed upon this order forms the basis of the agreement and supersedes all previous representations.
12. Alius Publications Ltd. reserves the right to cancel this agreement at any time giving the customer 14 days written notice and at such time will refund any monies paid.
13. While every effort will be made to maintain any published exhibition schedule, Alius Publications Ltd will not be held responsible should any event or exhibition be missed for any reason, delay or circumstance beyond its control.
14. The customer acknowledges that any and all colour will be produced using the four colour process (CMYK) and as such may not exactly match to Pantone references. Exact colour matches cannot be guaranteed.
15. While every effort will be made to meet the position requirements of advertisers, Alius Publications Ltd cannot guarantee such positions due to run of press.
16. Alius Publications Ltd. cannot be held responsible for customer's original artwork whilst in their possession. We will return any original artwork at your request. All artwork should be sent in accordance with Alius Publications Ltd. Specification Sheet.
17. Care Suppliers Guide™ is a trading entity of Alius Publications Ltd. Reg No. 05488271